Official Decision
Zoning Administrator
Carroll County, Maryland

APPLICANT: Tim Baum
6400 Candlewick Court
Sykesville, Maryland 21784

REQUEST: A variance from the required minimum setback of 350 Ft. to 100
Ft. for the construction of a shed and 350 Ft. to 220 Ft. for the construction of an addition/garage
to the existing dwelling.

LOCATION: 6400 Candlewick Court
Sykesville, MD 21784

APPLICABLE REGULATIONS: Code of Public Local Laws and Ordinances, Chapters 223-181

HEARING HELD: July 2, 2002

FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS

Based on the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing, the variances are granted.

Facts, which support the request for relief from the strict terms of the Ordinance, in this case, a reduction of the minimum required setback of 350 Ft. to 100 Ft. for the construction a shed and 350 Ft. to 220 Ft. for the construction of an addition/garage to the existing dwelling, are as follows:

On one side of the home there is a stone retaining wall and an orchard. The septic tank and pump chamber, as well as two huge maple trees are located in the rear of the property. New drain fields were recently installed on the property as well. As a result, there is only one practical location for the shed. This property has two minimum building lines that were recorded on the subdivision. It is not fully understood the reason why this property was recorded with these two minimum building lines. Typically, the reason would be for the septic system; however, the Applicant's septic is not located near the lines. The property has strange setbacks, and the setbacks the Applicant is proposing does meet the requirements of the zoning ordinance. The difficulty for the Applicant is the setbacks on the recorded plat. The Applicant may proceed with either the shed or addition/garage or both.

No neighbors were present at the hearing opposing the Applicant's request; therefore, the granting of these variances should have no adverse effect on any adjoining property owners.

This approval is valid for one year from the date of a Zoning Certificate.
